Announcement of Management Consolidation

I-Mab (the “Company”) (Nasdaq: IMAB), a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company committed to the discovery, development, and commercialization of novel biologics, today announced a consolidation of its management responsibilities.

Dr. Jingwu Zang, Founder and Chairman, will continue overseeing corporate strategy, global business partnerships and the development of the next generation innovation, while transferring Acting CEO with business operational duties to Dr. Andrew Zhu, President of I-Mab, effective from September 30, 2022. Dr. Zhu will also serve on the Environmental, Social and Governance committee (“ESG Committee”) of the board.

Mr. Richard Yeh, Chief Operating Officer, with an extensive track record in banking and working as a CFO for biotech companies, will assume the interim CFO duties effective from September 30, 2022. Mr. John Long will step down as CFO, board director and member of the ESG Committee to pursue other interests.

“The management consolidation is intended to reinforce the Company’s execution and operational efficiency. It realigns with the Company’s strategy to focus on bringing the value-driver assets to registration, advancing the emerging portfolio of next generation innovative assets to the clinic, and facilitating partnership deals to realize the value of the Company’s innovative pipeline,” said Dr. Jingwu Zang, Founder and Chairman of I-Mab.
